

Page Denied

16 March 1984

MEMORANDUM FOR: General Counsel

FROM: Executive Assistant to the DDCI

John thinks the attached is much too negative and would like to see it redrafted in a much more positive vein. For example, he would like to emphasize that oversight provides protection to intelligence agencies. You could also note, however, that the oversight committees must live up to their responsibilities to protect our secrets, etc. John would like to see the final draft before it goes out.

STAT